

In general , agree with the ARRL petition. However do not recommend retention of the morse code exam for any level. Would also consider keeping an HF oriented exam for the General Class level.